

CITB Site Manager Safety Training Scheme (SMSTS)

Course Introduction

The Site Manager Safety Training Scheme (SMSTS) is a 5x day course, providing Site Managers with an understanding of health, safety, welfare and environmental issues, as well as the legal responsibilities they have relevant to their work activities.

The course is designed to support site managers to:

- Manage & implement health, safety and environmental aspects on site, in accordance to current legal provisions and within the context of the role.
- Implement new guidance and industry best practice.
- Develop an understanding of responsibility and accountability for site health, safety, welfare and the environment.

We support the delivery of CITB SMSTS through regular classroom sessions, convenient remote virtual sessions or through private/ on-site courses - Get in touch to find out more!
